

The Legacy Question

01.24.21, 10am Celebration

Pastors Ray Wickham & Tommy Hart

Every decision you make becomes part of your story.

Good _____, Good _____.

Three Steps: 1. Ask, 2. Answer _____, 3. Act

We are not the only people impacted by our decisions.

MEMORY VERSE:

"The prudent see danger and take refuge, but the simple keep going and pay the penalty."

Proverbs 27:12

QUESTION #2: The _____ Question

"What _____ do I want to tell?"

You write the story of your life one decision at a time.

The Problem: _____

_____ - a behavioral bias in which the use of an initial piece of information carries a disproportionately high weight in a person's decision-making process.

In emotionally charged situations, we think about our _____, not our _____.

We usually choose the easier way.

"Therefore everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock. The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because it had its foundation on the rock." Matthew 7:24-25

This was the hard choice.

"But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on sand. The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell with a great crash." Matthew 7:26-27

This was an easier, more convenient choice.

"What _____ do I want to tell?"

or...

Which story would you rather be _____ to tell?
